Weber, Vera Zakharova. We are especially grateful to our faithful interns and volunteers. Finally, Kondratenko, Christina Riek, Dmitri Romanov, Dmitri Shabelnikov, Anastasia Sudzilovskaya, Viktor Linchevsky, Stanislav Stanko.

EU-Russia Civil Society Forum would like to thank all current and former colleagues and partners of the international civil society building, on which the Forum is based, all those who have contributed to the development of the Secretariat in a direct and indirect manner.

The Forum brought together organisations from Russia and the European Union, established as a bottom-up, non-partisan civic initiative. The Forum serves as a platform for members to engage in joint activities, articulate common positions, provide support and solidarity, and exert civic influence on policy- and decision-making on the (inter)governmental level. Driven by a vision of ‘the civil society beyond borders’, the Forum brings together organisations and people and thereby contributes to the integration between Russia and the EU, based on the common values of pluralistic democracy, rule of law, human rights and social justice.
